

Vinod Nambiar

Mr. Vinod Nambiar joined Colgate-Palmolive India in 1999 and progressed through various roles of increasing responsibility. In 2004, he became Customer Development Director for the subsidiary. Later in 2005, he became General Manager of Colgate-Palmolive Romania and moved as Vice President and General Manager of Colgate-Palmolive Italy, where he and his team achieved growth in an extremely challenging economic environment. In 2011, he was appointed as Vice President and General Manager of Global Personal Care, New York, where he partnered with Global Technology and the Global Supply Chain to build a long-term plan for the category and to drive simplification and profitable growth. Vinod led Colgate-Palmolive China in 2012 before taking up the position in 2014 as Vice President and General Manager of the Colgate-Palmolive Greater China Hub - that included China, Hong Kong and Sanxiao. In this critical leadership role, Vinod established clear commercial priorities with consistently strong execution, driving increased effectiveness and efficiency. He has recently taken over as the President Asia Division. He was appointed as a Non-executive Director and Chairman to the Colgate-Palmolive (India) Limited Board from 28 September, 2015.
